MRS. YBARRA WILL ROGERS ELEMENTARY

Mrs. Ybarra's students come to school every day with wonder and excitement, but not all of them come from the most privileged households. Because of this, she's made it her mission to provide her students with a sense of stability they might not have. Through sensory rooms and art therapy, she offers her students a safe space to escape from the difficulties they might face outside of the classroom.

MS. MCCARTNEY GUADALUPE CENTERS HIGH

Ms. McCartney didn't always plan on becoming a teacher, but she always planned on making a difference, no matter where she was. What was originally a challenge, quickly became a calling and a passion. Now Ms. McCartney's heart lies in Guadalupe Centers High, where she focuses on seeing, hearing and meeting her students where they are and getting them to where they want to be.

MRS. SMETANA FOX HILL ELEMENTARY

Mrs. Smetana always felt that it was important to make sure all of her students felt included, especially outside of the classroom. With recess being so important to childhood development, she made it her mission to get equipment that made everyone feel welcome to play. Now each of her curious kids have the tools to become the well-rounded, lifelong learners they deserve to be.
